Bill of Rights

FOR THE RESIDENTS OF ONTARIO
NURSING HOMES

Government
Publications

Ontario

The fundamental principle to be applied in the interpretation of this Act and the regulations is that a nursing home is primarily the home of its residents and as such it is to be operated in such a way that the physical, psychological, social, cultural and spiritual needs of each of its residents are adequately met and that its residents are given the opportunity to contribute, in accordance with their ability, to the physical, psychological, social, cultural and spiritual needs of others.
